The screenshot shows the 'Standards-Based Grid' interface in ProgressBook. At the top, there are navigation elements: 'ProgressBook', 'Standards-Based Grid', 'Class: READING 3: 1', 'Period: Qtr3', and 'Report Card: All'. A callout points to the 'Report Card' dropdown with the text 'Select desired report card'. Below this, a 'Dashboard' section contains 'Undo All Changes (0)' and a 'Filter list by student or student group' dropdown. A 'Copy Previous Period Marks' button is also visible.

The main area is a table titled '3rd Grade Report Card'. The columns include 'Miss', 'Att', 'Cmt', and several assessment categories: 'Reads fluently', 'Reads independe...', 'Makes inferences...', 'Summarizes mai...', 'Analyzes charact...', 'Compares & cont...', 'Identifies word p...', 'Applies word par...', and 'Reading Mark'. Each assessment column has a 'Manual' label and a small chart icon. A callout points to one of these icons with the text 'View pie chart and bar graph that group students based on their marks for the assessment'. The table rows list student names, with 'Anderson, Journey' having a '1' in the 'Miss' column. A callout points to this '1' with the text 'Missing assignment and absences counts'. A right-click context menu is open over a cell, showing options like 'Fill Column' and 'Clear Column'. A callout points to this menu with the text 'Right-click in a cell to view options'. Another callout points to a cell containing '4 (3)' with the text 'Mark that represents the student's current progress for the assessment'. A callout points to a document icon in the 'Cmt' column with the text 'Click to add daily comment'. Another callout points to a document icon with the text 'Indicates daily comment has been added'. A callout points to the 'Cmt' column header with the text 'Click to open the Progress By Student screen'. A callout points to the 'Cmt' column with the text 'The number of assignment marks that have been entered for the assessment'.
