

Student Groups	Class Groups
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Used to group individual students (a single student can be in only one student group at a time) • Can be used to give different assignments to different groups of students (e.g., based on abilities, interests, behaviors, etc.) • Created on the Student Groups screen, accessed from the Teacher Home Page screen Set Up Groups Within Classes link • Can include students from multiple classes • Sometimes referred to as “groups within classes” • Can be used to maintain assignments in one location for all students in the group • Can be assigned a VirtualClassroom activity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Used to group entire classes together (a single class can belong to multiple class groups) • Often used by special education teachers, music teachers, or physical education teachers who have students scheduled in several classes • Created on the Class Groups screen, accessed from the Teacher Home Page screen Group Classes Together link • Creates a combined class roster with its own Class Dashboard • Can be used on seating charts • Can be used for entering period attendance • Can be used to enter report card grades • Can be used to maintain assignments in one location for all students unless classes contain different subjects or report cards • Displays in Class drop-down lists throughout the application (except on Google Classroom Sync) • Can be used on Progress By Student and Standards-Based Grid screens unless individual classes are associated with different report cards • Can be assigned a VirtualClassroom activity